

dbpr

Ron DeSantis, Governor
Melanie S. Griffin, Secretary

October 1, 2026

William Rudge IV
6526 S Kanner Hwy
Ste: 129
Stuart, Florida 34997

Dear William Rudge IV:

You have been approved for special testing accommodation for the Unlimited Technical exam.

Once you have completed application process, please contact the Accommodations Coordinator at Pearson VUE at 1.800.466.0450 to make your scheduling and testing arrangements. Leave your name, examination name, candidate number, and daytime telephone number on the voice mail. The Accommodation Coordinator will call you back within 2 business days. Special Note: You must schedule your examination through the Pearson VUE Accommodations Coordinator to receive accommodation. Do not go online, and do not call the Pearson VUE regular telephone number provided on your Authorization Notice. All initial scheduling and changes to your test date must be completed through the Accommodations Coordinator at 1.800.466.0450.

Please show this letter, two forms of signature ID, at least one bearing a photo, and your written notice, to the staff at the examination site. Please retain this letter and do not leave this letter at the test center. The following provisions have been approved:

- Time and a half on exam.

If you have any questions regarding special testing accommodation, call 850.487.9755. The approval is only good for your current authorization. If you need to receive special accommodation at a future retake examination, you must notify this office prior to scheduling your next examination. This is a requirement for each retake examination. Please remember to include the name of the exam, current address/phone number and forward your request by mail to the Bureau of Education and Testing, Special Testing Office. You may also fax the notice to retake to 850.487.9757, or send an email to betspecialtesting@myfloridalicense.com

Sincerely,

Teshika Green, MSW

Teshika Green
Examination Development and Administration
Bureau of Education and Testing

dbpr

Ron DeSantis, Governor
Melanie S. Griffin, Secretary

October 1, 2026

William Rudge IV
6526 S Kanner Hwy
Ste: 129
Stuart, Florida 34997

Dear William Rudge IV:

You have been approved for special testing accommodation for the Certified Electrical Contractor, Business exam.

Once you have completed application process, please contact the Accommodations Coordinator at Pearson VUE at 1.800.466.0450 to make your scheduling and testing arrangements. Leave your name, examination name, candidate number, and daytime telephone number on the voice mail. The Accommodation Coordinator will call you back within 2 business days. Special Note: You must schedule your examination through the Pearson VUE Accommodations Coordinator to receive accommodation. Do not go online, and do not call the Pearson VUE regular telephone number provided on your Authorization Notice. All initial scheduling and changes to your test date must be completed through the Accommodations Coordinator at 1.800.466.0450.

Please show this letter, two forms of signature ID, at least one bearing a photo, and your written notice, to the staff at the examination site. Please retain this letter and do not leave this letter at the test center. The following provisions have been approved:

- Time and a half on exam.

If you have any questions regarding special testing accommodation, call 850.487.9755. The approval is only good for your current authorization. If you need to receive special accommodation at a future retake examination, you must notify this office prior to scheduling your next examination. This is a requirement for each retake examination. Please remember to include the name of the exam, current address/phone number and forward your request by mail to the Bureau of Education and Testing, Special Testing Office. You may also fax the notice to retake to 850.487.9757, or send an email to betspecialtesting@myfloridalicense.com

Sincerely,

Teshika Green, MSW

Teshika Green
Examination Development and Administration
Bureau of Education and Testing